Thank you so much for having me at your chapter tonight!

I know yall have a lot to cover tonight AND the bachelor is on tonight so I promise to make this announcement short and sweet!

As a junior (replace with your year in school) here, I know a lot about my fellow (school) students.

1. We love the idea of travel but we also LOVE the University of ____ and the idea of missing a whole semester of ____ and ____ (football and downtown _____) doesn't sound appealing.
2. Also studying abroad sounds awesome but it's a BIG decision and you want to go on a program you know is legit AND make sure you're picking the program that's best for YOU personally.

And that's why I'm here! My name is ____ and I am a brand ambassador for LeadAbroad. They are an organization based in Atlanta and their full-time job is helping students like us pick out a perfect summer study abroad program.

Everyone is looking for something different and we can help you actually find a program matches your interests and your schedule.

- Looking to call Paris, Rome or Barcelona for the summer but have long weekends to travel Europe while also knocking out class credit?
- Or maybe you want to start crossing things off your life bucket list like:
 - o Walking with elephants or cage diving with great white sharks in South Africa
 - o Or experiencing the world's most famous sunset in Santorini
 - o Or getting valuable medical experience, teaching abroad, interning or serving abroad.
- Some of you may be thinking "wow that all sounds great but your summer is all booked up and you only have 2 weeks to travel"...

It doesn't matter, we have a program that will work for you.

HERE'S THE PROBLEM: Most recent graduates their #1 regret is that they didn't study abroad. And it's not because they didn't want to. Everyone WANTS to travel and college is the best time to do it. It's because you push the decision off for another day and you don't take the steps to make it happen.

If anything I've said has peaked your interest and you want to add travel to the list of things you accomplish while you're in college jot your name and number down on this clipboard. I'm going to pass around three in differ parts of the room. Write down your name and number and we will text you to set up a time to chat for 10 minutes sometime this week..

We've say this every time we speak to a group and I will say it again: Do NOT spend your college summers stalking your friends' adventures on Instagram... Get your name and number on this list, and let's get you on an epic adventure this summer!
